Why and only Why Canada?

One of the Best Countries in the World to Live

As an affluent, high-tech industrial society, Canada today closely resembles the US in its market-oriented economic system, pattern of production, and high living standards.

Throughout the world, Canada is known as prosperous and a strong nation valued for its stability, respect for diversity and democratic institutions. With a huge landmass, a relatively small population and abundant natural resources, it has prospered to the point where the recent United Nations study lists it as one of the best places in the world to live.

This is why Canada has recently become the destination of choice for many of the world's immigrants. Canadians enjoy one of the highest qualities of life in the world. The clean environment makes a happy and joyful living.

Canada, a Country of immigrants:

Canada is a major immigration country, approximately one in six of its 32.5 million People were born outside Canada. Their countries of origin include the UK, China, Italy, Greece, India, Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Malaysia and many others.

Canada receives about 200,000 to 250,000 immigrants each year. More than a quarter of this number comes from Asian countries. The Canadian government actively encourages people to settle and work in Canada as permanent residents with the opportunity to attain citizenship after several years. This is because for the past two decades, immigrants have contributed to the economic wealth of the country more than any other group, contributing billions of dollars in investment and are often in the high earners wage bracket.

Canada is a country of immigrants and has a tradition and policy of encouraging multi cultural diversity. Almost the entire world's ethnic groups are represented in Canada. As a result, most ethnic foods and recreational activities associated with specific cultures are available. You will witness of the most beautiful, natural environments in the world.

Employment Interviews and Human Rights:

The point of an employment interview is for the prospective employee and his or her potential employer to learn about one another and to determine whether or not they can work together successfully. The Canadian Human Rights Act entitles all individuals for equal employment opportunities without regard to:

- Race
- National or Ethnic Origin
- Religion
- Age
- Family/Marital Status/Gender
- Pardoned conviction
- Disability (either physical or mental)

Facts about Canada and Canadian Immigration :

- Canada has been ranked number one by the United Nations Human Development Index as the best country to live in the world in the last decade.

- Canada has the world's highest rate of post-secondary education enrollment, and also an excellent health care system.
- Thanks to immigration, as Canada's Asian communities have been established for over 100 years.
- To become Canadian citizens, adults must have lived in Canada for at least three years (1,095 days) in the past four years before applying.
- Canada has safe neighborhoods, and it is considered to be much safer than any other country.
- The Canadian government accepts business persons and skilled workers from every part of the world.
- Migrating to Canada is considered easy when compared to other countries.

Jobs in Canada :

The job opportunities are pretty good in the fields like Accounting and Finance, IT and Telecommunications, Healthcare and Medical, Hospitality and Catering, Management, Clerical and Administrative, Marketing and Sales and many more.

Multinational companies like Apple, Disney, Google, Hasbro, Microsoft Corporation, Nike, Yahoo and others are located in Canada. Royal Bank of Canada, ANULIFE Financial Corporation, Bank of Nova Scotia Properties Inc, Toronto-Dominion Bank, EnCana Corporation are some of the top companies in Canada.

Visa Options:

Federal Skilled Worker – (Professionals and skilled trades' people)
Federal Skilled Workers (Professionals) are assessed upon a series of factors, i.e. a point system, which is designed to indicate the likelihood of becoming economically established in Canada.

Provincial Nomination Program – (Workers going to a specific province)

Provincial nominees are selected based on their ability to contribute to the province economic development. Usually, but not always, a genuine Canadian job offer from an employer within the province is a requirement under the Provincial Nomination Program.

New Canadian Experience Class –(If studied or worked in Canada)

The Canadian Experience Class is meant for foreign workers and international graduates who are in Canada on a temporary basis and wish to become Permanent Residents. Canadian education and work experience are the key selection factors.

Quebec Skilled Worker - (People intending to reside in Quebec)
Skilled Worker (Professional) applicants intending to reside in the Province of Quebec are selected on a different set of criteria than applicants who wish to settle elsewhere in Canada. The Quebec Immigration selection system is designed to indicate the likelihood of succeeding in settling in Quebec.

Business Class Immigration - (Managers and Business Owners)
Foreign individuals with business/managerial experience and relatively high net-worth may apply for Canadian permanent resident status under three sub-categories.

Family Class Sponsorship - (Close family members in Canada)
In certain circumstances, Canadian citizens and permanent residents are entitled to sponsor their close relatives from abroad. Canadian immigrants are entitled to live and work anywhere in Canada and they may sponsor close family members for Canadian Immigration status. Canadian Immigrants enjoy many, but not all, of the privileges of Canadian Citizenship and may apply for Canadian Citizenship after 3 years.

Canada differs from other countries in...

Geography: At approximately 10 million square kilometers, Canada is the second largest country in the world. It spans six time zones and is bordered by three oceans.

Population and Settlement: Canada's population is approximately 34 million (July 2012). Owing to Immigration, Canada's population growth rate of approximately 1 per cent year is well above that of many developed countries.

Health Care: Canada's health system is the responsibility of the provincial governments but the federal government also contributes funds. The health system is funded through taxes and residents don't have to pay directly for most health care services. Access to healthcare is guaranteed for all; however, most provinces will not cover newly landed migrants for the first three months, during which private insurance should be taken.

Economy: Canada is one of the world's wealthiest nations, with a high per capita income. Since early 1990s, the Canadian Economy has been growing rapidly, with low unemployment and large government surpluses on the federal level. Today, Canada resembles the U.S., in its market-oriented economic system, pattern of production, and high living standards.

Education: Education standards across the country are uniformly high. Education in both English and French is available in most places across Canada.

Basic requirement for immigration :

Canada Federal Skilled Worker (Professional) immigration applications are assessed on six factors like:

- Education
- Language skills
- Work Experience
- Age
- Arranged employment
- Adaptability

These selection factors are designed to indicate which applicants are likely to become economically established upon immigration to Canada. Each Canada Federal Skilled Worker (Professional) immigration selection factor is allotted with maximum number of points, and applicant must attain the outlined points in order to qualify for a Canadian Immigration (Permanent Resident) Visa.
