Settling in a new city is often a challenge. And there are various services and activities for new arrivals, such as familiarization courses, employment seminars, language classes, experience sharing and visit etc. Hong Kong is renowned for its simple tax structure with low tax rates. The Labor Department provides free employment services for job seekers who are lawfully employable in Hong Kong.

WORK IN HONG KONG

Overseas professionals who possess special skills, knowledge or experience of value which is not readily available in Hong Kong, or who are in a position to make substantial contributions to the economy, may apply to work here under the General Employment Policy (GEP). Applicants must have a confirmed offer of employment, the remuneration package of which must be broadly commensurate with the prevailing market rate of Hong Kong. In 2011, 30,557 overseas professionals were admitted under the GEP.

INVEST IN HONG KONG

The Hong Kong Dollar is the 8th most traded currency in the world. Hong Kong has one of the highest per capita incomes in the world. "Hong Kong ranked world's freest economy for 18th consecutive year" in May 2012. Some century-old organizations still use the name, such as the Hong Kong Post, Hong Kong Electric and The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation (HSBC). The Hong Kong has traditionally played a mostly passive role in the economy, with little by way of industrial policy and almost no import or export controls. Market forces and the private sector were allowed to determine practical development. Under the official policy of "positive non-interventionism", Hong Kong is often cited as an example of laissez-faire capitalism.
